

CATALOGING COMMITTEE

The RAS Cataloging Committee works with the Library of Congress to set policy on issues affecting Judaica cataloging and educates members on new policies or procedures through workshops and listservs.

CONFERENCE

Each summer, AJL holds a conference to give members opportunities for networking and professional development. Scholars, teachers, and librarians from around the world present topics of interest to attendees. While the conference is usually in the United States, it has also been held in Canada and Israel.

HASAFRAN

The AJL listserv is a forum for discussion of all topics regarding Judaica librarianship and literature.

MEMBERSHIP

AJL membership is open to individuals and libraries, library workers, and library supporters.

There are two divisions within AJL: RAS (Research Libraries, Archives, and Special Collections) and SSC (Schools, Synagogues, and Centers).

The diverse membership includes libraries in synagogues, JCC's, day schools, yeshivot, universities, Holocaust museums, and even the Library of Congress.

Members represent North America and beyond, including Argentina, China, the Czech Republic, Holland, Israel, Italy, South Africa, Switzerland, and the United Kingdom.

AJL welcomes members of any religious faith or affiliation.
