

New Resources of the JDC Archives of Interest to Librarians Jeffrey Edelstein

Description: This presentation will highlight a number of new resources of the JDC Archives. The focus will be on material of interest to Judaica librarians including:

- A new exciting face to the JDC Archives website
- New collections available online
- Newly opened Artifacts and Ephemera Collection now online
- How to access our historic Film Collection, including screening of a film clip
- New resources of interest to genealogists and family historians
- New fellowships for scholars and researchers
- New documentary film grant
- Education resources available online

Jeffrey Edelstein is the Digital Initiative Manager at the JDC Archives.