Bookplate for the Alexander Kohut Memorial Collection
A. Kohut, his first wife, Louise, and their children
Alexander George Kohut (1874-1933)
May 8, 1929

Dear Professor Keogh:

I earnestly hope that by this time you have recovered from your recent illness.

I sent you a few days ago a gift volume for the Kohut Collection. It is the original catalog of my father's library, compiled mainly by himself, but containing additional entries by his secretary. It dates back to 1862 or 1863, at which time his collection was a comparatively insignificant one.

Inasmuch as the Kohut Library is at Yale, I thought that this association might have a little more than a sentimental interest, and that it is best in your custody.

Preparatory to going abroad, I am packing up my books and papers which are to be stored during the summer. In the fall, beginning with October first, I shall be located in my new home at 1185 Park Avenue, to which address all correspondence is to be directed from that date on.

I sail on May 25th, and if there is any commission I can attend to for you abroad, especially in Vienna, I am at your disposal.

With kind personal greetings, I am

Faithfully yours,

(Signed) George Alexander Kohut
Incomplete catalog written in Alexander Kohut's hand
YALE UNIVERSITY
LIBRARY

In memory of
GEORGE ALEXANDER KOHUT
Anonymous Gift
Leon Nemoy  (1901–1997)
Signatures of 4 Censors at different times.
הוֹלֵיָה אֶחָד שְׁלָשָׁה.

כִּי יָדַעְתָּ יְהוָה מִצְוָתָם\nכִּי יָדַעְתָּ יְהוָה מִצְוָתָם\nכִּי יָדַעְתָּ יְהוָה מִצְוָתָם.

חֹזֵה מֵאָדָם יַעֲשֶׂה־לָהּ\nחֹזֵה מֵאָדָם יַעֲשֶׂה־לָהּ\nחֹזֵה מֵאָדָם יַעֲשֶׂה־לָהּ.

יְהוָה הִנֵּה יִשְׁמַר־לָךְ\nיְהוָה הִנֵּה יִשְׁמַר־לָךְ\nיְהוָה הִנֵּה יִשְׁמַר־לָךְ.
Etching from Yosippon 1546 Yiddish edition.
He-Arukh by Natan ben Yehiel (1035-1106) published by Daniel Bomberg, 1531/32

 difícil

comentarios

ya se

biología

1531
Dedication to the Breslau Rabbinic Seminary on its 25th anniversary by Kohut

[Image of dedication page in Hebrew]

[Translation of dedication text]

For all the meetings and teachings
And for the teachings everywhere
May it be a blessing and a source of knowledge.

We dedicate this volume to the memory of Rabbi Shalom Aronson, z"l, whose wisdom and insights have been a source of inspiration to us all.

May it be a source of knowledge and inspiration for all generations to come.

[Signature]

[Date]
Two bookplates. A previous provenance of a book in the Kohut Collection.
פסקי הלכות המaeperוב

רבינו מנחם מריקא
ולא ניחש על יד
השראים יי
ף
ב人も
1538

 السبت, יום שישי פירין
לברק נבון. הללו הולך
ברק נבון. חסן מירן