

Title of presentation as announced in Program Book: “LC Cataloging Update,” by Lenore Bell, Joan Biella, Edie Creeger, Marina Korenberg, Aaron Taub and Galina Teverovsky.

Lenore Bell is Head of the Israel & Judaica Section, Library of Congress, and has worked in various technical processing capacities at LC since 1985. She holds an M.A. in Arab Studies from Georgetown University.

Joan Biella holds an M.L.S. and a Harvard Ph. D. in Near Eastern languages and literatures. She has cataloged Hebrew and Arabic materials in Israel and in U.S. universities, and is now a Senior Specialist for Hebraica, Judaica, and Arabic materials at the Library of Congress. She acts as LC liaison to the NACO Hebraica Funnel Project and the Heb-NACO listserv for Hebraica catalogers.

Edie Creeger has been working at the Library of Congress since 1999, when she began serving as a Cataloging Technician. She is currently a Senior Library Technician in the Israel and Judaica Section, where she is responsible for various cataloging and acquisitions functions, as well as the section's automation needs. Mrs. Creeger holds a BS in Nutrition and Dietetics and an MBA.

Marina Korenberg works as a Senior Library Technician in the Israel and Judaica Section, Library of Congress. Ms. Korenberg has over twenty years experience in the field of Judaica/Hebraica librarianship, having worked previously at academic libraries at the University of Haifa, the University of Toronto, Ohio State University, and Johns Hopkins University. Her current responsibilities include both cataloging and acquisitions functions for Hebraic, Cyrillic, and Latin script materials, and she also specializes in working with audio-visual materials and other non-book formats.

Aaron Taub is a Senior Cataloging Specialist in the Israel & Judaica Section at the Library of Congress and the Vice-Chair of the AJL Cataloging Committee. Under the name Yermiyahu Ahron Taub, he is the author of The Insatiable Psalm: Poems (Hershey, Pa.: Wind River Press, 2005) and What stillness Illuminated: Poems in English, Yiddish, and Hebrew (West Lafayette, Ind.: Parlor Press, 2008; Free Verse Editions series). Visit his web site at <http://www.yataub.net>

Galina Teverovsky has worked in the Library of Congress since 2002, first, in the Serial Record Division, then subsequently, in the African and Middle Eastern Acquisitions Section. She is currently a Senior Library Technician in the Israel and Judaica Section. Prior to working at the Library of Congress, Ms. Teverovsky served as a Library Assistant and Teacher's Assistant at the Melvin J. Berman Hebrew Academy of Greater Washington. She has resided in the Washington, DC metropolitan area since her immigration in 1993 from the former Soviet Union.

Description:

Representatives from the Library of Congress' newly established Israel and Judaica Section will discuss developments in cataloging during the past year and will address cataloging questions submitted in advance by AJL members.