Updates from the National Library of Israel

Dr. Chaim Neria

Description: Annual update from the National Library of Israel - our new building, our new acquisitions and our new programs.

Dr. Chaim Meir Neria is Curator of the National Library’s Haim and Hanna Solomon Judaica Collection. Dr. Neria is a native of the Old City of Jerusalem and a graduate of Yeshiva Ma'arava, Beith-El, and Beith Orot. Dr. Neria completed his doctoral thesis at the University of Chicago in 2015 on Hebrew translations and interpretations of Aristotle’s Nicomachean Ethics in the Middle Ages. He also holds an MA in conflict resolution and peace studies from Notre Dame University, South Bend, and a BA in international relations from the Hebrew University of Jerusalem. Prior to his appointment as Curator of the National Library’s Haim and Hanna Solomon Judaica Collection, Dr. Neria worked for seven years at the Office of the President of the State of Israel, as Chief Speechwriter and Head of the Strategy Department. Dr. Neria is a married to Einat, a social worker, and resides in the Kiryat Menachem neighborhood of Jerusalem.